UNITEDHEALTHCARE AND SHERIDAN HEALTHCARE, INC. ANNOUNCE NEW LONG-TERM NATIONAL AGREEMENT FOR MEDICAL SERVICES

Sunrise, FL (April 23, 2009) - A national, long-term agreement will now provide customers of UnitedHealthcare and its affiliates, including Neighborhood Health Partnership (NHP) in South Florida, with access to the services of health care providers associated with Sheridan Healthcare, Inc. and its affiliates. The agreement is effective May 1, 2009.

“This new agreement reflects our ongoing focus on providing customers with access to a broad network of quality health care professionals,” said Dan Rosenthal, CEO for UnitedHealthcare of South Florida. “Having a long-term national contract reinforces our mutual commitment to affordable access to health care services for both employers and consumers.”

“We look forward to serving the members in UnitedHealthcare's and its affiliates' network throughout the United States by offering quality, compassionate health care services” said Sheridan's CEO, Dr. Mitchell Eisenberg.

Sheridan currently operates more than 100 facilities in 19 states.
